

North Qld Recorder Society Annual Weekend Workshop

Friday 1st September – Sunday 3rd September 2023

VENUE: Amaroo on Mandalay, Magnetic Island <https://www.amaroonmandalay.com.au/en-us>

Magnetic Island weather can be a little cool for the locals in September – so be prepared for sunshiny days at 16-25 degrees max., however, pack a jumper just in case we have a cold snap! Shorts and tee shirts, sandals and swimwear are all that you need. Participants need to book their own accommodation.

TRANSPORT

Townsville Shuttle Services will provide a transfer Service from Airport to Ferry Terminal or Hotel. Bookings can be made, and they will greet you personally on arrival. <http://shuttletsv.com.au/>

Amaroo has a limited transfer service. Please contact reception to arrange pick up. There are 2 taxis and 1 Uber on the Island and a bus stop at ferry terminal and Amaroo. Buses meet every ferry. Amaroo is 1.4 kilometers up the road from the ferry terminal.

Ferry Services: SeaLink is close to the city and The Strand.

Magnetic Island Ferries provide car ferry services. Walk-on passengers are welcome. It is on the opposite side of Ross Creek. <https://magneticislandferries.com.au>

TIMETABLE/PROGRAMME

For our visitors we will commence our weekend with an informal welcome to Magnetic Island on Friday evening with registration and informal gathering. Play recorders till 9pm.

A wonderful Workshop Program has been put together by our tutors, Robyn and Dan and will finish on Sunday afternoon.

Community Concert: Saturday 7.30pm- 8.30pm NQRS has secured a Regional Arts Community Grant to assist us with the organisation of the 2023 weekend workshop. To acknowledge this grant, the Maggie Island Community will be invited to a community concert. Entrance fee will be a gold coin donation. The money raised will be donated to the special Koala Hospital on Magnetic Island.
