

Recorder Workshops for NQRS in early 2019

Tutor: Malcolm Tattersall

Malcolm Tattersall, one of the first recorder students at Melbourne University, taught in Melbourne schools before moving to Townsville in 1990 where he has taught (and performed on) recorder, flute, clarinet, saxophone and sundry other woodwinds.

Venue: 9 Water Street, Mundingburra

Baby Steps

Beginning to play soprano (descant), alto (treble) or tenor recorder? This short course is for adults with little or no recorder playing experience and will cover basic recorder technique and music reading. All music will be supplied.

4 sessions x 1 hr. Fee $40 for the four sessions.

Developing Ensemble Skills

For Intermediate players: how to lead a group, conduct, choose music and troubleshoot ensemble problems.

Three sessions x 1.5 hr, starting second week in January 2019; dates and times TBA. Fee $35 for the three sessions.

Learning the "Other" Fingering

Introducing people who read music but only play one fingering (soprano / tenor or alto) to the other of them or to bass. Participants will need a copy of Malcolm's Recorder Notebook 2, and other music will be supplied.

Three sessions x 1 hr, dates and times TBA. Course cost $30 for tuition plus $10 for the tutor book if needed.

For all the above:

- Class will be cancelled if there are fewer than 4 pre-bookings
- Class size will be limited to 8

Enrolment

Email Malcolm at mtattersall@inet.net.au to register or express interest; payment may be made on the first night or by direct deposit - ask him for account details.